

Position: Principal, Al-Hadi School, Houston, Texas

We are recruiting a dynamic Shia Muslim to lead and manage the academic and operational functions and take our established school to next level of excellence.

Qualifications

Competency/Skills:

1. A committed practicing Shia Muslim of righteous conduct and follower of Shia Ithna e Ashri beliefs.
2. Ability to systematically analyze and prioritize problems, determine alternative solutions, and make appropriate and effective recommendations and decisions.
3. Strong organizational and interpersonal skills with excellent written and oral communication skills.
4. Establish and maintain strong and effective organizational and public relations, especially ability to create strong parent and community partnerships.
5. Understand, align and carry out duties under direction and guidance of the School's governing board.
6. The individual will be a role model for students to follow in Islamic behavior.

Education:

1. Master of Arts/Science or higher degree from an accredited university preferably in education, administration, or a related field.
2. A school administrator/principal certification is a plus.
3. A sound knowledge of Islamic belief, ethic and practices is required.

Experience:

1. Five+ years of teaching experience and a minimum of five years of leadership experience in an administrative role, at the elementary, middle or high school level is preferred.
2. Islamic school experience in teaching and administration is highly desirable.

About Al-Hadi School: Al-Hadi School of Accelerative Learning is a full-time, Pre-K to the 12th grade private Islamic school, established in 1996 and located in Houston, Texas. Accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, we currently have an enrollment of over 300 students. Our vision is to create an Islamic environment which will foster a community of learners and future leaders by inculcating a spirit of lifelong learning and Islamic behavior.

Please submit cover letter and resume to hr@alhadi.com . For more information about the school, please visit: <http://www.alhadi.com>